

SEKI Keisuke is the IP Attaché of the Japan Patent Office (JPO) for the Middle East and Africa and the Director of Intellectual Property Department in JETRO Dubai since 2021. Facilitating local IP-related inter-governmental cooperation and providing valuable support to Japanese companies.

Having joined the JPO in 2006, he served as a Patent Examiner specializing in pharmaceutical and biotechnology fields. He also worked in the Legal Department in-charge of revising the Patent Law and The Guide to Licensing Negotiations Involving Standard Essential Patents. Additionally, he was an Associate Professor of IP Law at Hitotsubashi University Graduate School of Law, Business Law Department.

Licensed Pharmacist in Japan. LL.M. in IP Law from the University of New Hampshire School of Law.