

MARIA CECILIA ROMOLEROUX

Admitted to practice as an attorney, Ecuador 1990.
University of Vienna, Austria (Certificate of German language, 1985)
Catholic University of Ecuador Lawyer and Juris Doctor degree 1990
Catholic University of Ecuador (French 1985-1991)

Most important appointments:

- First Ecuadorian to be a member of the Programming Committee of AIPPI
- First Ecuadorian to belong to the INTA's Board of Directors (International Trademark Association)
- President of AIPPI National Group in Ecuador for 3 terms.
- Chair of the Anti-Counterfeiting Committee ASIPI
- Chair of the Industrial Design Committee ASIPI
- Judge of the Administrative Litigation Court in Quito (Highest Court for IP matters)
- International IP Mediator and Arbitrator
- Selected as leading Ecuadorian IP attorney by various international publications such as "Chambers", "Latin Lawyer", "The Who's Who Legal" 2011-2022.
- Named as "Leading individual" by Chambers Latin America and Chambers Global 2012-2022.
- Winner of the Chambers award "Woman in Law" 2018.
- Leader of the first INTA LATAM Conference Cartagena 2017
- Team leader of the International Programming for INTA BOSTON 2019
- Only Ecuadorian to have been recognized among the 250 most influential women in IP as selected by IP Stars
- Member of the Editorial Board of the jurisprudence magazine of the Catholic University in Quito-Ecuador
- ENDEVOR mentor
- Leader for the ASIPI Conference Quito 2020
- Member of the EUIPO (European Union Intellectual Property Office) Observatory
- Member of the EUIPO International Panel of Experts.
- Secretary of the Anti-Counterfeiting Committee MARQUES
- Secretary of the Program Committee ECTA